Governor Richardson to Announce

“Billy the Kid” Investigation

Santa Fe: Governor Bill Richardson will announce his support for Lincoln County Law enforcement officials request to reopening the investigation of the events surrounding the life and death of Billy the Kid at a press conference at 11:30 am, Tuesday, June 10, 2003 in Santa Fe in the Governor’s Cabinet room in the capitol building.

Billy the Kid is part of New Mexico history and a legend that is still, over 100 years later, filled with mystery and intrigue. It is time to support Lincoln County law enforcement and to put modern forensic science to the test to answer the questions surrounding those days in New Mexico history.

Also attending will be Lincoln County Sheriff, Tom Sullivan, Steve Sederwall, reserve Lincoln County law officer and Mayor of Capitan, De Baca County Sheriff, Gary Grays, Grant County Attorney Sherry Tippet and University Of New Mexico History Professor and Executive Director of the Western History Association, Dr. Paul Hutton.
