GOVERNOR BILL RICHARDSON TO ATTEND TOWN HALL MEETINGS IN LAS CRUCES AND MIDDLE RIO GRANDE CORRIDOR

SANTA FE - Governor Bill Richardson will continue his "Moving New Mexico Forward" tour next ON Wednesday. Governor Richardson will visit Socorro, Las Cruces, Belen and Los Lunas.

Governor Richardson will discuss the recent legislative session, and talk about upcoming initiatives, such as the education-reform election in September and a planned special session of the Legislature to overhaul the state's tax system.

"More than anything, I want to hear from New Mexicans, especially those constituents who aren't able to make it to Santa Fe to visit with me personally," Governor Bill Richardson said. "I value the opinions of every New Mexican, and I am open to all suggestions that will help move New Mexico forward."

A representative from the Governor's constituent services office will also attend the events. Constituents who need help dealing with a state service or agency should be at the events early, so they can talk directly with the Governor's staff. If possible, constituents should put their concerns in writing in order to expedite a response from the Governor's Office.

Governor Richardson has visited 28 New Mexico communities and held town hall meetings during trips to every region of the state during the past five weeks.

Here is the tentative public schedule for the trip on Wednesday:

Socorro

9:30 a.m. - 10:15 a.m. Town Hall meeting at Macey Center on the New Mexico Tech campus.
