GOVERNOR BILL RICHARDSON SUPPORTS NEW MEXICO TROOPS

FORT BLISS - Governor Bill Richardson plans on visiting members of the 720th Transportation Company from Las Vegas, New Mexico at Fort Bliss on Thursday. The unit was called up by President Bush and confirmed by Governor Bill Richardson on February 7th.

Governor Bill Richardson and Major General Randy Horn, Adjutant General for the New Mexico National Guard, will arrive at 8:30 a.m. The Governor will personally greet and address the soldiers at 8:35 a.m.

Governor Bill Richardson will then travel to White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico to receive a briefing.

The Governor will return to Santa Fe in the afternoon to continue work with the Legislature.
