

Advisory for Memorial Day Weekend

Governor Bill Richardson to Give Commencement Address Sunday at Middlebury College

Governor Richardson Will Also Participate in Memorial Day Ceremonies Monday in Albuquerque

For Immediate Release
May 23, 2003

Contact: Pahl Shipley
505.476.2202

SANTA FE- Governor Bill Richardson will give the commencement address to 650 graduating seniors this Sunday, May 25, at Middlebury College in Vermont. Governor Richardson will speak about international issues and challenges for the United States. Middlebury College will also present the Governor with an honorary Doctor of Laws degree. Commencement exercises will begin at 10a.m.

Middlebury College, located in Middlebury Vermont, was established in 1800 and graduated the first African-American citizen from a college in the United States. About 650 students will graduate.

Memorial Day

Governor Richardson will join other dignitaries in honoring the men and women of our armed forces during Memorial Day ceremonies beginning at 10am Monday, May 26, at the New Mexico Veteran's Memorial, 1110 Louisiana SE, Albuquerque. The event is being produced by the United Veteran's Council.