Governor Bill Richardson appoints Mora County Magistrate Judge

SANTA FE- Governor Bill Richardson today appointed Eugene Martinez to fill the vacancy in Magistrate Court for Mora County.

“Eugene Martinez is a community and business leader who has the intelligence and integrity to serve as magistrate judge,” Governor Richardson said. “Mr. Martinez knows the community of Mora, and is committed to fair and equal justice.”

Martinez replaces former Mora County Magistrate Judge Rudy C. Montoya, who resigned in June.

Martinez, a business owner in Mora, is married with four children. His family owns Hacha’s Café in Mora. Martinez has been active in Mora and Las Vegas. He coaches youth sports teams and serves as a member of the Mora County Chamber of Commerce.
