Governor Bill Richardson to speak at DGA Spring Conference

SANTA FE - Governor Bill Richardson, the vice chairman of the Democratic Governors Association, is scheduled to speak today at the association's Spring Policy Conference and at a luncheon at the Nucleus Club, a group of Arizona business leaders, in Phoenix, AZ. The Governor will speak about investing in New Mexico.

Governor Richardson will speak during tonight's opening dinner for conference attendees. Governor Richardson will urge the Governors to attend the DGA Summer Policy Conference in Santa Fe on June 19-20. There are 22 Democratic governors.

Governor Richardson will also give the keynote speech Saturday during the Colorado Democratic Party's 71st Annual Jefferson Jackson Day Dinner in Westminster, CO.

The Democratic Governors' Association is paying for the Governor's travel.
