SANTA FE- Meals on Wheels today received a grant in the amount of $150,000 from the Altria Group.

“At this moment in America, one of the richest nations in the world, thousands of seniors are in need of nutritional meals,” said First Lady Barbara Richardson. “And each day in communities throughout New Mexico and all over America, local senior meal programs are helping to bring meals to those unable to leave their homes - - mothers, fathers, grandparents and neighbors.”

This is the second year in a row the Meals on Wheels program has been awarded a grant from the Altria Group.

Helen Davis, on behalf of Albuquerque Meals on Wheels accepted the check from Henry Turner of Altria Corporate Services today at a press conference.
