SANTA FE- Governor Bill Richardson today announced the appointment of Katharine A. McCoy as State House Representative for District 22 in the counties of Bernalillo, Santa Fe and Sandoval. Katharine replaces Ron Godbey who resigned from the seat in August. The term expires December 31, 2004.

“Kathy McCoy knows New Mexico, and I’m confident that she will represent the growing communities of Albuquerque’s East Mountains well,” Governor Bill Richardson said.

Katharine McCoy has been a resident of New Mexico since 1977. She is currently the Vice President and co-founder of the East Mountain Legal Defense Fund. Katharine spent most of her career in outside advertising sales and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Professional Writing from the University of New Mexico.
