Governor Bill Richardson to meet with Air Force official in D.C., talk to NFL Commissioner in New York

Governor also attends DGA Holiday Reception

SANTA FE - Governor Bill Richardson has a tentative meeting scheduled for Monday, Dec. 12, 2005 with William C. "Bill" Anderson, Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Installations, Environment and Logistics, during a trip to Washington, D.C.

Governor Richardson is meeting with Assistant Secretary Anderson to discuss the ongoing effort to identify a new mission for Cannon Air Force Base.

Governor Richardson, the Chairman of the Democratic Governors Association, will also attend the DGA Holiday Reception in Washington, D.C. The DGA is paying for Governor Richardson's travel.

Governor Richardson will travel to New York on Tuesday, Dec. 13, 2005, to meet with National Football League Commissioner Paul Tagliabue about the New Mexico's efforts to lure an NFL team to New Mexico in the future. The Governor will return to Santa Fe Tuesday.
