Governor Bill Richardson Mourns Loss of Roswell Publisher

SANTA FE – Governor Bill Richardson released the following statement today after learning about the death of Corey Beck, the publisher of the Roswell Daily Record:

“I know first-hand that Corey cared deeply for his hometown of Roswell, and every time we met, he was promoting ways to improve Chaves County,” Governor Bill Richardson said. “On behalf of the state of New Mexico, I extend my sympathies to Corey’s wife, Dana, and his step-son, Stephen.”
