Free Kevin Costner Concert

Your Chance to be in Movie and Win Prizes

SANTA FE – The Kevin Costner Movie “Swing Vote” is hosting a special event at the Rodeo de Santa Fe on Friday, September 21st with a free Concert starring Kevin Costner and his band Modern West. In addition the production will be raffling off a bass boat, a 2007 TRACKER Panfish 17 with trailer. The public of all ages is invited and doors open at 5 pm.

Santa Fe Mayor, David Coss, will introduce Costner and his band for a very special concert for the city of Santa Fe.

Everyone in attendance will be on film for the final debate scene starring Costner, Kelsey Grammer and Dennis Hopper. Local comedian, Scotty Goff, will MC with a family oriented comedy routine.

Concert attendees will have the opportunity to watch real movie production, and win lots of great prizes.

Other prizes will be raffled off including:

3 Trips to Las Vegas

2 Trips to Disneyland

1 Trip to the Richard Petty Driving Experience in Las Vegas

“Swing Vote” is a political comedy starring Costner as Bud Johnson, a lovable loser, coasting through life. His over-achieving daughter, Molly, takes care of them both, until Election Day, when she accidentally sets off a chain of events which culminates in the presidential election coming down to one vote... her dad’s.

"Swing Vote" is a comical look at the journey of one father and daughter who discover that everyone has the power to change the world.

Rodeo de Santa Fe is located at 2801 Rodeo Road in Santa Fe, NM.
