Governor Bill Richardson Announces

UPHAM –Governor Bill Richardson announced that White Virgin Galactic's WhiteKnightTwo carrier aircraft is now scheduled to make a flyover at the Las Cruces airport on Saturday at 9:30 a.m., weather permitting.

The aircraft was unable to complete a flyover during today's groundbreaking ceremony.

Virgin Galactic will establish their world headquarters in southern New Mexico and run their operations from Spaceport America, bringing with them over 400 construction jobs and thousands of supporting industry jobs. Virgin Galactic has been actively developing the technology to make low cost commercial space access and UP Aerospace, Lockheed Martin and Armadillo Aerospace have also committed to Spaceport America.
