EXECUTIVE ORDER 2023-054

AUTHORIZING ADDITIONAL EMERGENCY FUNDS FOR THE ONGOING EMERGENCY IN THE CITY OF LAS VEGAS DUE TO THE ASH AND FIRE DEBRIS RESULTING FROM THE HERMITS PEAK/CALF CANYON FIRES

WHEREAS, San Miguel County was severely impacted by the Hermit's Peak Fire that began on Wednesday April 6, 2022, and the Calf Canyon Fire that began on Tuesday, April 19, 2022;

WHEREAS, the Hermits Peak/Calf Canyon Fires left a significant burn scar along the Gallinas River watershed, leaving thousands of acres of scorched forest, ash, and fire debris;

WHEREAS, the precipitation that has occurred since the Hermits Peak/Calf Canyon Fires caused flooding and large amounts of ash and other fire debris to be deposited into the Gallinas River;

WHEREAS, the city of Las Vegas relies, almost exclusively, on water from the Gallinas River for its municipal water source, and the large amount of ash and debris has prevented the City from pulling water from the Gallinas River;

WHEREAS, the large amount of debris and ash deposited into the Gallinas River has resulted in extremely high turbidity, rendering existing water treatment facilities unable to fully process drinking water for the City of Las Vegas;

WHEREAS, these events prompted the City of Las Vegas to issue a local disaster declaration on July 27, 2022;

WHEREAS, an April 18, 2023, report by American Rivers ranked the Rio Gallinas the ninth most endangered river in the United States;

WHEREAS, the City of Las Vegas has requested aid, assistance, relief programs, and funding from the State of New Mexico;

WHEREAS, I have issued numerous executive orders declaring emergencies relating to these fires and flood disasters, including Executive Orders 2022-017, 2022-021, 2022-076, 2022-077, 2022-112, 2022-113, 2022-114, and 2022-166, which freed up State resources to help those communities impacted;

WHEREAS, the Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management has made significant expenditures to assist and house New Mexicans who evacuated their communities due to these disasters;

WHEREAS, these disasters continue to be of such magnitude as to be beyond local control and require the resources of the State of New Mexico to minimize economic or physical harm;

WHEREAS, the Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management requires additional funding to continue their assistance, which remains necessary to protect the peace, health, and safety of those impacted by these disasters.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michelle Lujan Grisham, Governor of the State of New Mexico, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the State of New Mexico do hereby DECLARE a state of emergency to exist in the City of Las Vegas due to flooding and lack of drinking water, and ORDER and DIRECT as follows:
