WHEREAS, for example, police calls in the City of Española—which straddles Santa Fe and Rio Arriba Counties—have more than doubled in the past two years, and police dispatches to businesses in Santa Clara have quadrupled during that same time;

WHEREAS, the impacts of these public safety threats are severe and far-reaching, manifesting in increased homelessness, family instability, and fatal drug overdoses;

WHEREAS, I have recently issued executive orders declaring a state of emergency in Rio Arriba County, Santa Fe County, the City of Española, the Jicarilla Apache Reservation, and the Pueblos of Pojoaque, Ohkay Owingeh, Santa Clara, San Ildefonso and Tesuque after they indicated that local resources are insufficient to address this emergency and requested assistance from the State of New Mexico;

WHEREAS, these previous orders released emergency funds to the Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management and directed the Adjutant General to order into service any elements of the New Mexico National Guard as are or may be needed to provide military support to civil authorities as needed for this emergency;

WHEREAS, the New Mexico National Guard possesses the personnel, logistical capabilities, and resources necessary to provide non-law enforcement support this effort, including assistance with traffic control, administrative duties, prisoner transport, court security, emergency response, and other critical functions that allow local law enforcement to focus on crime reduction efforts;

WHEREAS, this emergency requires immediate action to protect public peace, health, and safety; and

WHEREAS, this disaster is of such magnitude as to be beyond local control and requires the resources of the State of New Mexico to minimize economic or physical harm and to take actions necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare.
