WHEREAS, this severe weather is impacting much of the country, with precipitation moving in from the west and an arctic cold front moving from the south into eastern New Mexico;

WHEREAS, this severe weather brings the potential for up to one foot of snow in some areas of New Mexico and temperatures as low as negative twelve degrees Fahrenheit;

WHEREAS, this severe weather has the potential of shutting down Interstate 25 and Interstate 40, closing multiple state and local roads, rolling power outages, and damage to both public infrastructure and private property, including personal residences;

WHEREAS, this severe weather requires immediate actions to protect public peace, health, and safety;

WHEREAS, this severe weather will likely be of such magnitude as to be beyond local control and requires the resources of the State of New Mexico to minimize economic and physical harm and to take actions necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michelle Lujan Grisham, Governor of the State of New Mexico, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the State of New Mexico do hereby DECLARE a state of emergency to exist statewide due to the severe weather event that began on January 23, 2026, and ORDER and DIRECT as follows:

3. The Adjutant General shall order into service any elements of the New Mexico National Guard as are or may be needed to provide military support to civil authorities as needed for this emergency.
